APPLARE, ACCESSORIES & CONSUMER GOODS

WHY EXHIBIT?

China has witnessed a new round of consumption upgrading, with its annual growth rate of retail sales of Consumer Goods at more than 10% in the past decade. Consumers in China are starting to value quality over price, and imported goods are favored by many consumers. Unlike previous large overseas companies, which entered China market directly, many products of the small and medium-sized enterprises entered China market through new channels such as procurement service, import supermarkets and Cross-Border E-Commerce.

CIIE will become a new channel for foreign consumer goods to enter China market and activate more potential consumers. In addition to the B2B and B2C trades during the showing period, the Expo will provide a long-term channel for small and medium-sized enterprises to sell in China, which will be a 365-Day Expo.

TRADE IN SERVICES

WHY EXHIBIT?

From 2011 to 2015, Chinese value of import rose from 247.7 Billion USD to 467.4 Billion USD, an average increase of 24% per year. Among them, the growth of Outbound Tourism was the most prominent. After eight years of rapid growth of over 20%, Chinese residents' Outbound Spending grew by a staggering 77% in 2015. In addition, Chinese imports of trade in services, namely transport, business services, franchising, construction services and insurance services, were also significant.

Providing high value added services will be a lucrative business in the huge market of China. The Expo will build a bridge between global service providers and demanders to make quality services known in China and the broader global market.
